OSD Declassification/Release Instructions on File

July 7, 1941

MEMORANDUM FOR THE CHIEF OF STAFF:

Subject: Interchange of Information between the Different Departments of the Government.

1. On April 15, 1941, as a result of the approved M.I.D. memorandum (G-2/10540-492) letters were sent by the Secretary of War to the various Departments and independent agencies of the Government requesting designation of representatives to study the above subject. Various meetings have been held with the representatives of the Departments and agencies as a result of which a final report has been approved by those representatives and is now in process of being presented to their respective Departments and agencies for final approval and action necessary to effect that approval. Copy of the final report is attached herewith.

2. Action recommended.

Approval by the Secretary of War of the attached report and the designation by him of the Military Intelligence Division, General Staff, as the War Department office for the exchange of information set forth in Par. 3 b of the attached report.

SHERMAN MILES,
Brigadier General, U. S. Army,
Acting Assistant Chief of Staff, G-2.
